

BIBC/BIWBC International Series 2018 Selection Policy

Period of Cover: 1st February 2018 – 31st January 2019

The purpose of the BIBC/BIWBC Selection Policy is to ensure the best possible squads, teams and players are selected to achieve maximum success when representing Scotland during the BIBC/BIWBC International Series in 2018.

Player Eligibility

In order to be eligible to be selected to represent Scotland in any BIBC/BIWBC Competition/Event players must:

- Be a playing member of a Bowls Scotland affiliated club
- BIWBC Juniors & BIBC Juniors must be within the age restrictions as detailed below:
 - BIWBC: Applicants must be 25 or under on or before 1st April 2018
 - BIBC: Applicants must be under 25 as at 1st April 2018

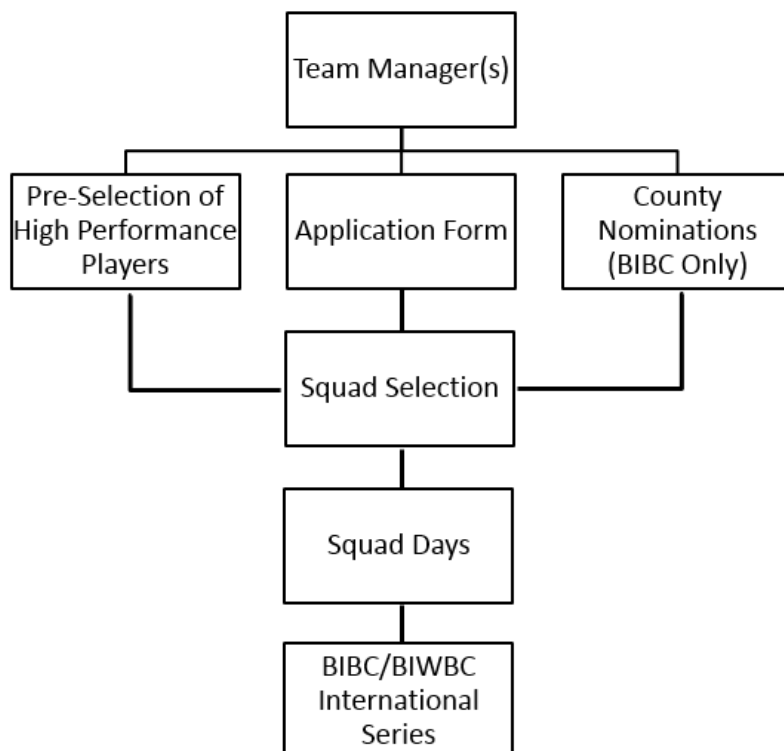

Selection Criteria

Selection will be based on the following areas:

- Pre Selection from the current High Performance Squad through nominations by the Bowls Scotland High Performance Head Coach
- Application Form: Proven experience and/or success at recognised competitions as detailed in the application form and submitted by the closing date
- Nominations from City & County Representatives (BIBC only) submitted by the closing date
- Team dynamics and personal attributes
- Ranking Points may be taken into consideration

Team selections will be overseen by the Team Managers with the support of a panel of officials if required.

Selection Process

Please note:

- There will be no trial days in this years selection process
- All successful players must attend the Team Squad Days (even if pre-selected)
- Bowls Scotland will inform all applicants of their selection or non-selection in writing
- Once players have been offered a place on the team they will have a time limit to accept the offer. If no response is received by the cut off time detailed in their letter it will be assumed they have declined the offer and another player may be offered the place
- Public notification of the selected players will be made by Bowls Scotland only after all selected players have been notified
- All successful players must adhere to and sign the Bowls Scotland Players Agreement and Social Media Policy

This policy will be available to all Bowls Scotland members through the Bowls Scotland website. Bowls Scotland shall have no responsibility to give notice of this policy to any individual members or clubs.
