

BOWLS SCOTLAND – CHAIR, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Bowls is one of the biggest participation sports in Scotland with 821 clubs and 49,500 members and we are seeking a committed individual with a passion for sport in Scotland to fulfil the vacancy of Chair of the sport's Board of Directors. Working as part of a team, the successful candidate will understand the challenges and opportunities facing the sport and possess the necessary leadership qualities to help shape the future of lawn bowls in Scotland.

As Chair, you will contribute to the strategic running of the Company and focus on specific tasks, outlined in the role descriptor. This challenging role will suit highly motivated and committed individuals, who feel they can make a positive contribution to Bowls Scotland's future. It is anticipated that attendance will be required at up to eight Board meetings per annum plus any strategy meetings as appropriate. There will be regular communication with the Board, CEO and other appropriate senior staff members and you will be responsible for overseeing and supporting the role of the CEO and appraisal of Board Directors.

Bowls Scotland has a set of values, outlined within our Corporate Strategy and available on our website. We are committed to selecting board members based on their ability to do the role for which they are being recruited. We encourage applications from all sectors of the community.

For an informal discussion please contact Sue Beatt, Chair Bowls Scotland or Alan McMillan, CEO Bowls Scotland – both can be contacted on info@bowlsscotland.com or 01292 294623

To apply, please send your CV and covering letter, outlining your skills and experience in relation to the Chair role, to info@bowlsscotland.com marked Private and Confidential: Bowls Scotland Chair
