

BOWLS SCOTLAND – EQUALITY, INCLUSION & WELFARE MANAGER

SALARY: £28,000

TERM: Full Time

LOCATION: National Centre for Bowling, Northfield, Ayr or based at a suitable sportsotland regional office. Bowls Scotland operates a flexible working policy, therefore a combination of home and office working can be considered for this role

Bowls Scotland is one of the biggest participation sports in Scotland with 821 clubs and 50,000 members. We are seeking an experienced and driven Equality, Inclusion and Welfare Manager to facilitate strategic change by working with staff, members, and a range of partners to review and coordinate our EDI work and support our EDI delivery. In addition, we want to ensure welfare is a consistent, significant, and substantive consideration in all aspects of Bowls Scotland's work, with the Equality, Inclusion and Welfare Manager central to this.

We are looking for a passionate, self-motivated individual who can manage multiple projects or a diverse workload in a fast-paced environment. You must work with integrity, be hard working, motivated, and come with experience of effecting change. This is an excellent opportunity to work within an experienced team, where we will support you to develop and thrive in the role.

Bowls Scotland has a set of values, outlined within our Corporate Strategy and available on our website. We are committed to selecting staff based on their ability to do the job for which they are being recruited. We encourage applications from all sectors of the community.
