Introduction

Senior leader with international experience in commercial operations across customer service, procurement, supplier management, legal and contracts, warehousing and logistics and building management.

A committed team player with a passion for collaboration focussed on maximising value and benefits balanced against cost, risk and customer and employee satisfaction. Highly commercially aware with a pro-active but always practical and realistic, data driven approach to decision making and delivering results.

Personal Style

Intensely curious and interested in seeing possibilities beyond what is currently known, accepted or obvious. With an ability to retain objectivity, takes a logical, analytical approach combined with intuitive skills to home in on the essence of complicated, confusing situations and move swiftly to the root cause. Independent, logical, and determined with enormous resolve to carry things through.
